Dear Sir,

This is the mail we received from Cambridge Office in response to our request for a supporting document/proof from Cambridge regarding how BEC scores can be equated in relation to IELTS, securing which is helping students for their career, both in terms of higher education and for general immigration purposes.

Hope it serves our purpose to defend our case with the NAAC committee.

Thanks & regards,
Prof. Sharada Allamneni

Dear Dr. Vijaya Babu

Greetings from Cambridge Assessment!

Further to your query please find the details below, do let me know if there are any further clarifications.

1. I am attaching the CEFR framework from our website. There you can see the following <https://www.cambridgeenglish.org/Images/126130-cefr-diagram.pdf>
 - a. IELTS Band Score of 5.0 – 6.5 is equal to BEC Vantage
 - b. As per the Cambridge English Scale any score between 160 – 180 that falls in the same Band Score of IELTS Band of 5.0 – 6.5

2. There I also a link where you can convert the IELTS score to the Cambridge English Scale Score <https://www.cambridgeenglish.org/exams-and-tests/cambridge-english-scale/>

Please find a print screen below of the Score Convertor – this will tell you the score on the Cambridge English Scale that corresponds to the score on BEC Vantage as well as all Cambridge English Qualifications.

Comparing scores

There may be times when it is useful to know how a CEFR level, IELTS band score or old standardised score compares to a Cambridge English Scale score.

Our score converter tool can help you. Simply select what type of score you'd like to convert from, input the value and the tool will tell you what the equivalent Cambridge English Scale score is. You can also use the tool to convert from scores on the Cambridge English Scale back to CEFR Levels, IELTS band scores or old standardised scores.
