A Talk on Academic Integrity

Vignan's Foundation for Science, Technology & Research - Deemed to be University (VFSTR), has organized a session for students on "Academic Integrity" by Dr. M.Y.S. Prasad, Vice Chancellor, VFSTR on 10th August, 2019. Dr. M.Y.S. Prasad spoke as a premier institution for advanced scientific and technological research and education, the Institute values academic integrity and is committed to fostering an intellectual and ethical environment based on the principles of academic integrity. Academic Integrity encompasses honesty and responsibility and awareness relating to ethical standards for the conduct of research and scholarship. The Institute believes that in all academic work, the ideas and contributions of others must be appropriately acknowledged. Academic integrity is essential for the success of the Institute and its research missions, and hence, a violation of academic integrity constitutes a serious offence.

A Session on Student Behaviour in Campus

Vignan's Foundation for Science, Technology & Research - Deemed to be University (VFSTR), has organized a session for students on "Student Behaviour in campus" by Dr. A. Sharada, Head of Humanities Division, VFSTR. on 19th February, 2019. She said that Student Behaviour is the manifestation of an individual's outlook towards the world in general and society in particular. It is reflected in the way a person reacts to a situation and conducts individual in relation to others. Besides, one's Behaviour is reflected in one's dressing, language, demeanour etc. He also said that, Behaviour whether inside or outside the campus is of paramount importance especially for a student community. Within the campus, good Behaviour in terms of maximum attendance, punctuality, dress code, display of ID card, concern for the fellow student, respect to the teachers, etc., will ultimately lead to good professional growth of the individual in the long run. Good behaviour even outside the campus is of importance in order to safeguard the image and prestige of the university. Therefore, the students are expected to behave in a manner which will enhance not only his image but also the image of the university. Students of Vignan's University are known for their modesty, simplicity and docile nature.

An Awareness program on Mental Health & Physical Health

Vignans Foundation for Science, Technology & Research - Deemed to be University (VFSTR), has organized an awareness program for Students on "Mental Health and Physical Health" by Dr. T. Durga Vimala, Consultant Psychologist, Acharya Nagarjuna University, Guntur. Dr. T.D. Vimala expressed her view about mental health and physical health, but it is necessary to look for both of them together. Generally, mental health can be defined as how people feel, think and act when faced with life's problems. In addition, a mental disease causes feelings of unhappiness, loss of hope, sleeping problems, changes in eating habits, loss of interest in natural activities, and pains which have no physical description. Occasionally, mental and physical illnesses appear similarity in many of symptoms, such as a decrease in food cravings and energy levels. Therefore, this essay aims to argue specific situations could have an effect on both mental and physical health. Poor physical health can lead to an increased risk of developing mental health problems. Similarly, poor mental health can negatively impact on physical health, leading to an increased risk of some conditions.

An awareness program against Discrimination towards others, Based on a protected class

Vignans Foundation for Science, Technology & Research - Deemed to be University (VFSTR), has organized an awareness program "against discrimination towards others, Based on a protected class" by Sri. Mannava Subbarao – Andhra Pradesh NGO's President. Sri. Subbarao garu has spoken about Discrimination towards others, based on a protected class is defined as unreasonable, unwelcome conduct, based on an individual's gender, race, color, age, religion, national or ethnic origin, gender identity or expression, medical condition, veteran status, disability, or any other legally protected classification, that objectively and subjectively harms the person by severely, persistently, and/or pervasively denies the person equal access to educational opportunities, residence and community life, or terms and conditions of employment. This type of discrimination can occur in any form and can be directed at individuals or groups. Depending on the severity of the circumstances, infractions may be resolved through a variety of appropriate methods, ranging from informal, remedial steps, including training, counseling, or mediation to disciplinary action, up to and including suspension or expulsion. In all cases, the institute encourages individuals to seek support and assistance as soon as possible. Before any behavior can be considered for the student conduct process, it must be clear that no substantial free expression interests are threatened by bringing a formal charge of discrimination. If a person has been subject to discrimination including harassment on the basis of a protected classification, as described above, the student should consult with the director of equal opportunity and engagement for guidance. The program successfully conducted on 28th August, 2017.

A Session on Adverse effects – Consumption of intoxicating drinks and drugs.

Vignan's Foundation for Science, Technology & Research - Deemed to be University (VFSTR), has organized an awareness program for students on 4th April, 2017. "Adverse effects - Consumption of intoxicating drinks and drugs" by senior IPS officer Mr. M. Malakondaiah as the Director-General of Police (DGP), Head of Police Force (HoPF). Mr.

M. Malakondaiah said that drug and alcohol abuse can be devastating to a person's health and academic performance. To be more specific, getting intoxicated can have a negative impact on cognitive functions (concentration, memory, attention) for 48 hours. The recovery from smoking pot is more complex, and is described below in more detail, along with a more detailed discussion of the impact of alcohol. While by no means should this list be considered exhaustive, the following are some ways in which commonly used substances can be particular problems for students. While several problems can accompany substance use and abuse, this list focuses on those drugs that impact two domains that are clearly barriers to academic success-anxiety and cognitive functioning.

The following few more effects of alcohol on students:

- Weakened immune system
- Poor sleeping habits
- Physical injury
- Financial stress
- Mental health problems
- Legal stress

A Session on Self Confidence – Self Esteem

Vignan's Foundation for Science, Technology & Research - Deemed to be University (VFSTR), has organized a session for students on "Self Confidence - Self Esteem" by Mr.

J.D Lakshmi Narayana, Rtd IPS Officer on 3rd April, 2016. He spoke about the confidence level in students is an important factor in educational success. As more students are facing bullying and harassment, confidence in students can suffer and when this occurs, grades often suffer. Building confidence in students is one of the most important step parents can take to ensure an atmosphere of learning. If a student is suffering from bullying, immediate steps must be taken to correct the situation and rebuild the level of confidence in these students. When a student loses self-esteem, they may lose motivation in learning. By building confidence in students, parents can safeguard the most important ingredient to success that is motivation.

Confidence in students is vital for his or her success. The amount of self- confidence a student possesses will affect his or her educational goals. If a student loses confidence in college, his or her grades will ultimately be affected. When a student's self-confidence suffers, Student may give up on his or her hopes, dreams and plans. They may feel that they are unworthy of obtaining their goals or it is impossible to achieve them. Building confidence in students can help prevent student dropout rates, ensure that kids maintain their love for learning and help them achieve their dreams and goals. There is no denying to the fact that the relationship between a student's confidence and educational success is intertwined. Self-confidence is one's ability to judge his own social and personal standing with respect to his environment. Self-confidence is something that is influenced by factors like upbringing, work environment and the level of dedication. High self-confidence is an important factor in improving business ties and balancing personal life.

One of the best ways to improve confidence is to engage individuals in various self- esteem activities for students. By boosting self-esteem in students, adolescents who may come from a less than desirable home setting can learn skills that foster a sense of community and respect. By ensuring that, a Student's self-esteem is healthy, the environment for learning becomes one where education and learning thrives. Self – esteem activities for students are an excellent way to help boost their confidence and increase learning.

A Talk on Academic Honesty

Vignan's Foundation for Science, Technology & Research - Deemed to be University (VFSTR), has organized a session for students on "Academic Honesty" by Cmd. M.S. Raghunathan, Registrar VFSTR. He addressed on 20th September, 2015 and spoke about The College believes that each student can learn, notwithstanding his or her age, life history, current circumstances, or past academic experience. The College is a learning community in which adult students experience educational practices that honor and empower them. The College works with students to design the education and training needed for their academic and career success through programs which develop and enhance skills, competencies, attitudes, and values. The students are expected to meet high academic standards. In order for students to take advantage of the educational opportunities, they must engage with and generate their own original papers, exams and other assignments. Students may not reproduce the work of others and characterize it as their own. Not only is such a practice dishonest, but it does not lead to the development of new skills and habits of mind. Academic dishonesty is any form of academic conduct that is deceptive, dishonest, or fraudulent. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and fabrications. At the end of session, all the students pledged on Academic Honesty.

MEET BY ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

Anti-Ragging committee of Vignan's University has organized a meet on 14th August in coordination with SAC, to raise the awareness about ragging and the inhuman activities that are being involved by the students.

As ragging, being a serious threat of the campus and issues in this respect are increasing day by day, every one is more concerned to curb this menace. Dr. V. Madhusdhan Rao, Dean-Student Affairs addressed the gathering and threw some light on the rate of accidents occurring in and around the varsity. He tried to bring up awareness to students about the importance of safe driving and the use of helmet. He complimented Student Activities Council (SAC) team for putting up banners in the campus regarding two-wheeler safety. He added students must be vigilant on roads.

Mr. G. Ravi Kumar, Inspector of Police was invited to the meeting and he spoke about the impact of accidents on student's life. He explained the significance of women and the consequences that has to be faced by involving in Eve teasing. Being a police officer he explained about the actions taken under section 509 for eve teasing and suggested students for a better future.

Mr. B. Srinivas Rao, Deputy Commissioner of Police, South Zone addressed the students and explained about the definition of ragging and the consequences faced by the students involved in ragging.

Commissioner defined that not just abusing juniors physically or mentally, but forcefully interacting with them is also ragging. He mentioned that police department has passed circular's to the institutions in the month of July regarding the ragging policies.

He mentioned that it is the responsibility of the management to prevent ragging by forming Anti Ragging Committees and Anti Ragging Squads and to conduct surprise visits in the hostels and buses.

Mr. A. Raghunath, chairman of Anti Ragging Committee promised that ragging is eradicated in our varsity by taking the efficient measures. They are also successfully creating a friendly environment between seniors and juniors. He concluded the meeting by thanking the members of Anti Ragging Committee and appreciating their work for eradicating the ragging in our varsity.

Prof K.Satchidananda Murthy Birth Anniversary

Prof K. Satchidananda Murthy, an authority on classical as well as contemporary Indian philosophy, attempted to trace the evolution of philosophy in India. The outcome of his deep, quintessential & comprehensive scholarship in Indian & western thought inspire the readers promoting the spirit of enquiry. He is also the recipient of the prestigious award "Padma Vibhushan", he is also the proud author of around 50 books, his Magnus opus 'Reason and Rationality in the Adyatha Vedanta'.

Such a great personality's statue was inaugurated on 25th September in the NTR Vignan Library, the central library of the campus, at Prof. K. Satchidananda Murthy Knowledge research center Vignan's university on the occasion of his 91st Birth Anniversary. This was organized by NTR Vignan Library in association with Student Activities Counsel, as even though being the magnet of laurels he isn't recognized by the students these days so as to spread awareness and encourage the students to read his works. Dr. Yarlagadda Lakshmi Prasad, Rajgopal and George Victor were the chief guests of the event. The program started with our chairman Dr. Lavu Rathaiah who stressed the importance of philosophical writings of Prof K. Satchidananda Murthy and his contribution towards Indian philosophy, it was followed by Dr. Rajgopal who mentioned about the work done by Prof K. Sachidananda Murthy towards Indian philosophy. He emphasized on the point that Prof K. Satchidananda Murthy belongs to Sangam Jagarlamudi, Guntur Dist. a nearby village to our varsity and the none of them know anything about him, He also added that prof K. Satchidananda Murthy was the 1st Indian writer to write Chinese and Japanese philosophy.

Dr. Yarlagadda Lakshmi Prasad told that this area was very renowned at that time because Prof K. Satchidananda Murthy belonged to this area. He also said about the fame of Prof K. Satchidananda Murthy. He praised our Chairman Dr. Lavu Rathaiah for his contributions towards society. He specially thanked Mr. Sri Krishna Devaraya, vice chairman of Vignan group for his contributions towards installing Prof K. Satchidananda Murthy statue in the NTR Library of Vignan's university. He re-embarked that only the institutions which promote social and ethical values will flourish.

Then George victor addressed the gathering about how philosophy is nothing but a proper discussion or talk about feelings, ideas and values.

The family of Prof K. Satchidananda Murthy also attended the event. The dignitaries from all the Vignan groups, faculty of Vignan's university & Vignan LARA attended the event.
