Recommendations:

- It is recommended that more training hours are required, especially for speaking and listening skills, to train the students for the exam.
- So far, the students are allowed with two backlogs or no backlogs for the examination. Keeping the previous results and training experiences, the backlogs of a student should not be considered as a criterion to take the examination. Because, the students with backlogs are interested to attend the training and capable to achieve the level of the examination but they were ineligible due to their backlogs. Since the exam is testing language skills of the student so, the students' should be allowed after passing a screening test.
- The training and the examination should be conducted before the semester ends. As many of the students, especially hostellers vacate the hostels during the vacations. These results a low attendance as well the impact of the training doesn't hold long.
