

Republic Day 2019: Delighting frames that captured 'Vibrant VFSTR'

The picture of early hours of Saturday was adorable .What a cool misty Republic Day it was. Students with colourful Kurta- Pyjama, the country flags around the campus and March Past of NCC Cadets, patriotic music, mesmerising cultural performances filled the sense of patriotism among everyone present in VFSTR.

Dr. Justice K.G Shankar, Retired High Court Judge was the chief guest for the day and Guest of honour was Dr. A. Krishna Kumari, Former Professor of Law in Lal Bahadur Shastri, National Academy of Administration, Mussorie.

Dr. K.G Shankar said that “We need to work for country which is free of inequalities. Institutes like us need to develop technology so that it need to help common man. We need to work for secular thinking and scientific thinking” he added. In conclusion, he also shared his own opinions on the amendments of the constitution.

Speaking on the occasion, Ms.Krishna kumari said that Self Motivation is much more important at every age and at every stage than motivation by others. Self-motivation is, in its simplest form, the force that drives you to do things. We just need strong determination and perseverance.

She also said , “Make technology your slave but don't be a slave to technology”. Your greatest asset is your mental ability and be ready to take risk.”Grab the present and don't repent over past” she added.

Dr. M.S Raghunadhan said that It is the day to celebrate Indianness i.e; spirit of India. He also informed that this year the Indian government will celebrate 150th Birth Anniversary of M.K Gandhi and 100 th Birth anniversary of Nelson Mandela.

Constitution is not a paper it is living document”, he quoted.

Furthermore, it was followed by the speeches of Vice Chancellor and Rector.Students and faculty from LARA Engineering , Pharmacy and junior colleges were also present at the venue.
